ARTISIAN CRAFTED. DESIGNER CURATED.

Design is at the heart of John-Richard, with the aim to redefine luxury décor with an expansive collection encompassing lighting, wall art, furniture, upholstery, case goods, accessories, and botanicals. History, provenance, great foreign cultures, exquisite materials, meticulous finish work, and the particular talents of superb artisans inspire us. Each season, we aim to delight the consumer with unexpected details such as exotic veneers, hand-carved surfaces, reverse-painted glass with art motifs as well as natural agate and crystal accents.

The company is headquartered in Whitsett, NC, where it operates from a substantial facility housing design, sales, administrative functions, and the main US distribution facility. With a strong emphasis on growth, John-Richard has also established two new state-of-the-art manufacturing facilities in Vietnam and India, with additional facilities in China cementing the company's worldwide footprint. A spacious showroom located in High Point, NC, the heart of the furniture industry, is also readily available for members of the trade.

Interior design is the narrative of the home, and John-Richard is dedicated to providing exquisite products and details that bring these stories to life.

John-Richard Unveils One-of-a-Kind Introductions at Spring 2025 High Point Market

HIGH POINT, NC, [April 2025] – John-Richard debuts its Spring 2025 collection at High Point Market, spotlighting individuality and craftsmanship across lighting, wall decor, accessories, and furniture. Each offering presents fresh perspective and distinctive artistry, designed to stand apart in the marketplace.

At the core of this season's line is a celebration of intricate artistry and material exploration. Bench-made pieces that showcase the skill of master craftsmen, beautiful hand-blown glass sculptures, meticulous gilding, and inventive finish work that result in truly unique designs. Rather than opting for simplicity or sameness, the brand values character, precision, and a hands-on approach. Rejecting uniformity, the collection embraces bold character and one-of-a-kind detail.

Rooted in diverse artistic backgrounds and natural inspirations, the collection features collaborations with a range of designers. Among them is abstract artist Carol Benson-Cobb, whose aesthetic is reflected in select furniture pieces that seamlessly merge art and design. New to the Spring line is contemporary artist Kate DeOssie, whose series of dynamic abstract prints evokes natural scenes through an expressive lens — an ideal fit with the brand's creative vision.

Each new introduction showcases John-Richard's pursuit of innovation, artistic expression, and enduring craftsmanship.

John-Richard Highlights Carol Benson-Cobb's New Inspirations at Spring 2025 High Point Market

HIGH POINT, NC, [April 2025] – John-Richard proudly continues its celebrated collaboration with renowned abstract artist Carol Benson-Cobb, whose refined textures and soft palettes have become signature elements across the brand's fine art and select furniture pieces.

This season, Benson-Cobb introduces a new creative direction influenced by her recent exploration into pottery. The tactile experience of working with clay brings ceramic-like textures—such as raked finishes—to cabinet doors and other surfaces.

This shift brings a sculptural, handcrafted dimension to her aesthetic and aligns with John-Richard's commitment to artistic evolution. Her evolving techniques deepen the brand's enduring values of artistry and craftsmanship, reinforcing its dedication to fresh, one-of-a-kind design perspectives.

The Province Collection is an innovative collaboration with renowned abstract artist Carol Benson-Cobb. Three chests and two armoires draw inspiration from traditional pottery techniques, featuring Terracotta textures that convey the dimensional beauty of hand-raked clay. These warm, organic motifs are elegantly contrasted by architectural fluting and crisp Palazzo finish, blending modern artistry with classic style. Gleaming accents of English Brass create a striking interplay between the grounded tones, contributing an opulent finishing touch. Celebrating bold creativity and masterful craftsmanship, each piece in the collection offers a truly extraordinary statement for any space.

John-Richard Advances Sustainability with Major Renewable Energy Project at Vietnam Facility

HIGH POINT, NC, [April 2025] – John-Richard is enhancing its sustainability efforts through a new solar energy initiative at its dedicated, LEED-certified manufacturing facility in Phu Tan Industrial Park, Binh Duong Province, Vietnam. Purpose-built in partnership with Fraser Property Vietnam, this factory is exclusively operated by John-Richard and reflects a long-term investment in responsible production practices.

The project will span two of the facility's four buildings, featuring solar panels and advanced monitoring technologies. Once online, the system will generate approximately 700,000 kWh of clean energy annually—covering about 70% of the facility's total electricity needs.

“Our factory was designed with sustainability in mind from the beginning,” said Antony Maitland Smith, General Manager of John-Richard Vietnam. “Partnering again with Fraser Property Vietnam strengthens our shared mission to implement sustainable practices across all operations.”

This initiative builds on John-Richard's broader environmental programs, including VOC capture, waste stream elimination, and comprehensive recycling—reinforcing the company's commitment to long-term ecological impact and community responsibility.

John-Richard Welcomes Drew Moore as Chief Financial Officer

WHITSETT, NC – John-Richard is pleased to announce the appointment of Drew Moore as Chief Financial Officer, effective January 6, 2025. With over 28 years of experience across supply chain and manufacturing, Moore brings deep expertise in financial management, operational strategy, and team leadership.

Starting his career at Blyth as a controller and supply chain manager, he would eventually join MVP Group International and Elastic Fabrics of America in the CFO position, where he focused on driving efficiency and sustainable growth. At John-Richard, Moore's initial priorities include using the strengths of John-Richard to maintain growth expectations in the current uncertain marketplace.

Moore was drawn to the opportunity to apply his experience in a new industry and looks forward to contributing to John-Richard's continued evolution. His appointment reflects the company's commitment to strong leadership and strategic expansion within a competitive, fast-moving marketplace.

Drawn by the opportunity to apply his experience to a new industry, Moore looks forward to contributing to John-Richard's ongoing evolution.

John-Richard Welcomes Renowned Ceramic Artist Akira Satake to High Point Showroom

HIGH POINT, NC, [April 2025] – John-Richard is honored to showcase the work of ceramic artist Akira Satake in its showroom at 200 Steele Street during the upcoming High Point Furniture Market. Born in Osaka and based in Asheville, NC, Satake is celebrated for his organic, nature-inspired pottery and is a fixture of the River Arts District's creative community.

Following severe flooding from Hurricane Helene that damaged his gallery and studio, Satake's resilience and artistry continue to inspire. John-Richard is proud to support him during this recovery period, celebrating work that shares the brand's commitment to craftsmanship and individuality.

Visitors to the showroom can experience Satake's extraordinary ceramics firsthand. To learn more, visit akirasatake.com or support his recovery via his GoFundMe page.
